RACING IN DEEP MUD.

DAY OF SURPRISES AT JEROME PARK.

DOSTREET AND TENNY MATCHED AT A MILE AND A QUARTER-THE RACE TO BE RUN

AT MORRIS PARK ON WEDNESDAY. Manmouth Park management offered a card of podest pretensions at Jerome Park yesterday. No all and the racing on the whole was not up to the and of a great and wealthy association. The est mee on the programme was 1,400 yards, eighty is over three-quarters of a mile. Racing has come to a low ebb when in a programme of six nees all are at a shorter distance than seven furlongs. there is something radically wrong in such a condition of affairs. The management should altogether refrom the thing. The steeplechase, under the rules of three lengths before Pernwood.

not be spared. Details of all the races are given below. The steeplechase aroused the enthusiasm of the spectators to a high pitch. Futurity was kicked at the post by Westmoreland and the judges permitted his with-trawal, as he was extremely lame. The flag fell on a fair start, but Delaware, the favorite, refused to leave her stable companion and was soon a hundred pards in the rear. But when once set going she closed the gap speedily and came within two lengths of winning. Ecarte captured the purse cleverly, and Troy was a good third. There were no falls to mar the mort, no accidents to curdle the blood of the spectators. was on the whole a respectable steeplechase, there was no little talk of ses. That was, of course, to be expected. A steeplechase with every horse trying never was heard of under the sun. The management might with excellent grace inquire into the internal economy of nio and the orders issued to his rider, but nothing could be gained. The chase was hugely enjoyed, and in the fun of the thing everybody seemed to overlook the possibilities of fraud.

Euld was kicked at the post before the start for the irth race and the judges allowed her owner to withmoney bet on her was lost. This caused some grumbling, but there was no help for it. The judges did right in excusing her and in leaving the bets alone. Of late there has been too much meddling with the betting ring. Better leave that to the bookmakers,

At last Tenny and Longstreet are to meet. management announced yesterday that a match bad been made, and it is to take place at Morris Park on Wednesday, July 29. In the book programme that day has been set down for Jerome Park, but in view of so extraordinary a match everything will be transterred to Morris Park. By a strange error the agree ment drawn up by Messrs. Dwyer and Pulsifer mentions date as Wednesday, July 30. Here it is:

"We, the undersigned, agree to run a race over the Morris Park race-course on Wednesday, July 30, for 85,000 each, half forfelt, the Monmotth Park Racing Association to add $2,500. Distance one mile and a Quarter.

Mr. Dwyer is entirely right. Longstreet is not a mud horse. Besides, a match run in mud would be mnd noise. Besides, a maked with the top of the top of spectators as did the tamous Saveby-Tenny haster.

It was mentioned in this column yesterday that J. E. McDonald bid up Strocco to $2.805 on Thursday, but it was not known at the time that Mr. Lórillard afterward claimed buisy Woodruff. If this was done by way of reprisal, Mr. Lorillard gained but little, as Mr. McDonald was overjoyed to lose the mare, who has but two sound flegs. She may, however, make a very good brood mare at Rancocas.

IN THE MUD AT SARATOGA. GLOOMY SKIES KEEP AWAY THE SPECTATORS-DETAILS OF YESTERDAY'S RACING.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE ! Saratoga, July 24 .- Fortune still frowns upon the racing sectation. Heavy rains throughout the night and this sorning made a quagmire of the track, and destroyed inequenters of the track during the season made up card frequencers of the track during the season made up card-parties and remained in their hotels. Therefore only a "corporal's guard" was present to witness the sport, and the poor bookies had a hard time making expenses. Only two favorites were successful, but the other winners were all well backet, and the ring got much the worst of the play. The colored division began operations in a vigorous fashion by winning the first two races with Astrakhan and Forerunner respectively. The Californians next had an inning with Tearless, a filly that ran six furious in 1:14% at home. Appromattox was the "good thing." but he was not "in it" at any stage of the game. The fourth race fell easily to Los Angeles, who always runs fourth race fell cash. It made all the running and won the final selling race. California ran away before the start, and his jockey showed so much brutality in clubbing the horse over the head that he aroused the indignation of

Sull' AGAINST A YACHT FOR LIGHT MONEY.

A suit of considerable interest to yachtsmen was begun in the United States District Court by United States Attorney Edward Mitchell yesterday. The Government demands the condemnation of the schooner yacht Miranda, because her owner, H. B. Hill, refuses to pay 84:235 of light money alleged to be due to the United States.

Mr. Hill bought the Miranda in England, where she was built, and brought her to this country, of which he is a citizen. On July 18 he anchored of liny Ridge with the yacht, and Government officials demanded the light money, under Section Pools-Detroit $15, field $25.

One of these, Gaston who has resided for years in the country, was in charge of the most important operation in the revealed plot. BROKER AND DIRECTOR IN A QUARREL.

What stagnation in oil or stocks may have existed vesterday at the Consolidated Exchange found a temporary offset in a suddenly developed quarrel between two well-known members of the Exchange, with the incidental excitement caused by a fit of a young woman who was passing the building at almost the same time that the quarrel was brewing within.

The principals in the quarrel were H. L. Kingsbury, director of the Exchange, and William H. McQuald, who has been a frequent sufferer at the hands of the players of practical lokes on the floor of the Conolidated. He lives at Middletown, N. Y., and has jocularly been dubbed "The Middletown Farmer." It was to the tendency of some of the members to disturb the equanimity of the member from Middletown that resterday's "mill" was due. Mr. Kingsbury gave Mr. McQuaid an alleged order to buy stock. The member from Middletown was making note of the transaction when he became aware, it is said, that one of the pockets of his cont was full, offensively full, and that the contents of the pocket were soft and odoriferous. suspecting at once that Mr. Kingsbury had honored him with an ill-conditioned egg, Mr. McQuaid angrily attacked the director. Both men have reputations as fighters on the floor, and the trouble between them was the signal for the practical suspension of business. Chairman Peters rapped vigorously for order, and to accentuate the evidence of his displeasure imposed a fine of $10 on each of the belligerent members. The affair will probably be laid before the board of gov

Lafore the excitement from this cause was allayed, it was renewed by the appearance in the lobby of a young woman in a lit. She had been setzed with the attack as she passed the door of the Exchange. She was removed to one of the side-rooms on the gallery floor and cared for until able to return to her home in Staton Island.

NEW-YORKERS IN BOSTON. There were exciting times at the Polo Grounds yester-day, and those who remained away supposing that the rain would prevent the New-York-Philadelphia game missed a treat. A game was played—it was a good one too—and the Giants won, an unusual thing for them at present. Then Rusie, the mainstay pitcher of the local team, met with a severe accident. the yellow-whiskered crank who tries to hoodoo the Glauts was drugged and silenced.

It was a day of incidenta, and the 845 spectators who had faith in the weather had many things to talk about last night. Rusie was injured in the second inning trying to stop a line drive from Allen's bat. The ball struck the first finger of his right hand and caromed of to Whis-tler, who retired Allen at first. Rusie's pitching finger was torn and the neil almost parted from his finger. He had the bruised member dressed by a physician last night. but he does not think that he will be able to pitch again for a week. The injury leaves the Giants in wretched condition to go to Boston. John Ewing and Sharrott are

In case he does good work he may be retained by the local club. Such a mevement would meet with favor from the average attendant at the Polo Grounds game. Buckley's arm is in bad condition, and his throwing to bases is about as poor as that done by Ewing. sending their Quaker City rivals first to the bat and the put them out in one, two three order. The Gianta were sent to first on called balls. Of course the singgers Therman and Connor were easily disposed of, neither man being able even to sacrifice their comrades a base. O'Rourke was struck by a pitched ball and the buses were full. Bassett then hit safely to left field and Gore and Richardson scored. Whistler was put out by Allen, leavrorked all day long behind closed doors. He bought and looked relieved. Clements led off with a two-base hit to centre field and went to third on a sacrifice by Myers Shindle went to first on balls and stole second. On established a barricade at this house. The police at-tacked the place and arrested Fonteynes, whom thay found hidden underneath a bed. After considerable questioning Fonteynez confessed that he had been en-fumble by Bassett. A wild throw by Buckley allowed Hamilton to get to second. On Thompson's drive to thire Hamilton should have been declared out, as he ran ou of line, but Umpire Lynch was again looking with his bad eye and did not see the Grick. Then Delenanty hit safely blowing up the Governor's mansion, the police head- and Hamilton scored a run which Philadelphia was not entitled to.

The score remained a tie up to the eighth inning, when the Giants railled at the bet and scoring three runs won the game. After Connor had struck out for the second time O'Rourke was sent to first base on called bails.

Philadelphia, July 24.—To-day's Athletic-Baltimore game was in many respects a peculiar one. In the second inning the visitors lumped five of their six hits, and with the aid of a base on balls and a fumble by Mulvey scored five runs. They held the lead until the eighth, when the nest three Athletic batemen hit safely. Madden was then substituted for Cunningham, but the change did not work well, the home team making six runs as the result of six singles and a triple.
